GINA KAMINSKI

Rescues the Giant

LITTLE TIGER
LONDON

This school trip is rubbish.

There are three reasons why.

1. The art gallery is too big.

2. The lights are too bright.

3. Worst of all,

I don't know where to eat my lunch.

Using my chart, I feel like this 😒.

One. Jack sells his cow for three magic beans, which grow into an enormous beanstalk.

Two. Jack climbs up the beanstalk and finds a giant with a special hen and a special harp.

Three. Jack and the villagers plan a heist to steal the giant's special things, and it's a bad ending for the giant.

Using my chart, this story is . “There are three massive mistakes with this book,” I say to Anya.

Then I have a great idea . . .

MISTAKE One

THE MAGIC BEANS

Three magic beans for one cow is not a good deal.
Everyone knows this.

I spot a mysterious-looking bean seller up ahead.
