THE HEROES

SONNY AKA SUPERSIZED SQUIRREL

Lover of nuts. Hero of the forest! Sonny can glide and grow supersized! He is always on the lookout for critters in need (and an acorn-butter sandwich).

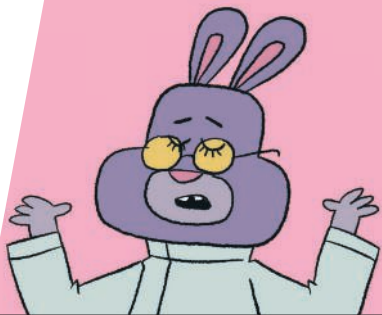

BLAZE BUNNY

Sonny's fire-blasting best friend. They've been together helping forest creatures from the beginning.

THE PROF

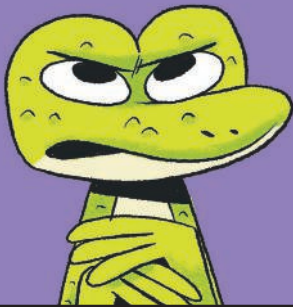

Has super smarts! He created THE WARREN, a home and training facility for animals with superpowers.

THE F.A.R.T. (Federation of Animals with Radioactive Talent) AKA THE VILLAINS

CAPTAIN FOX

The super speedy leader of THE F.A.R.T.

GECKO

Be careful not to get caught in Gecko's super slime!

INVISIBEAR

A dangerous combination of mischief and invisibility.

CHAPTER 1: SERIOUS HERO BUSINESS

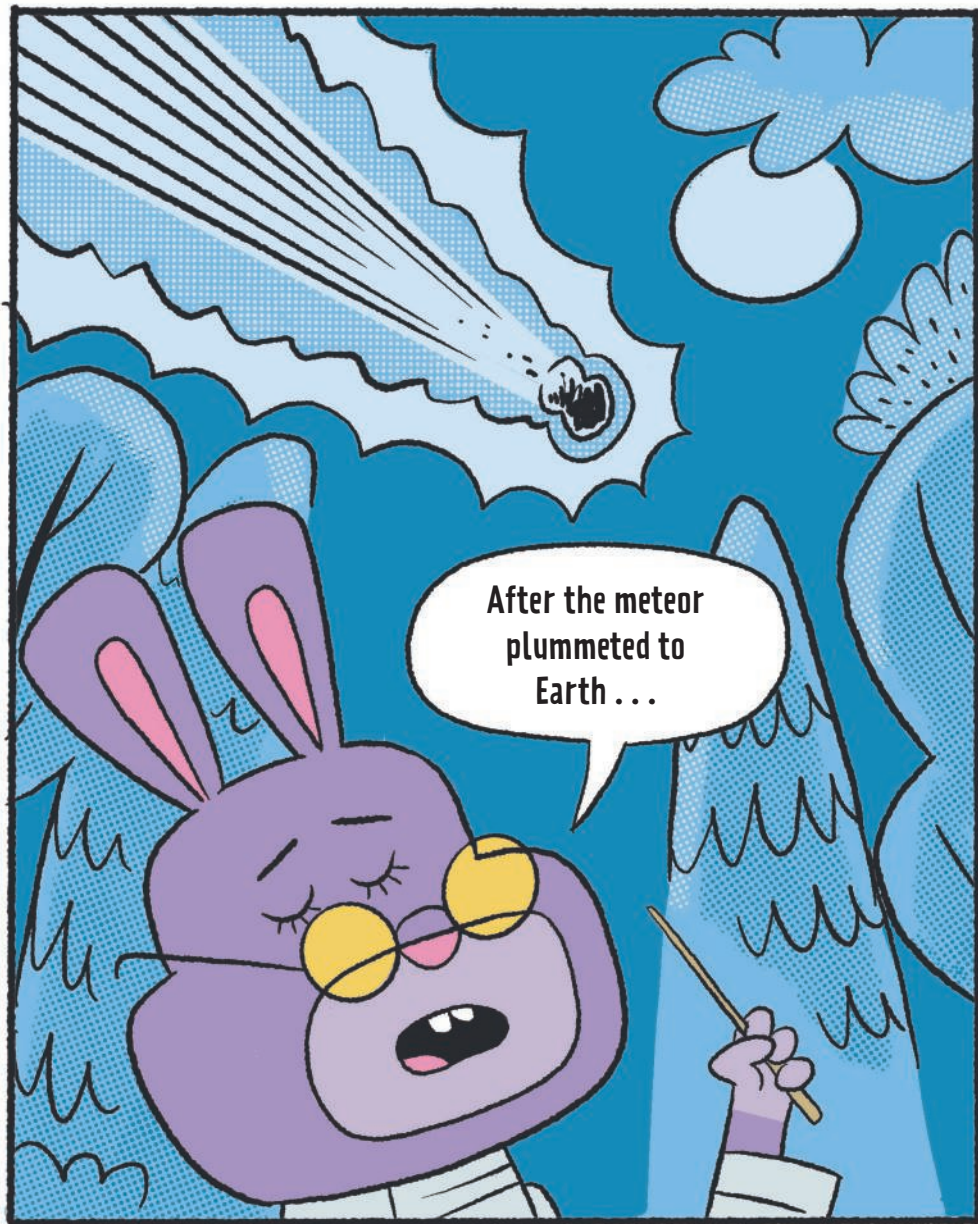

We join our heroes
at The Warren . . .

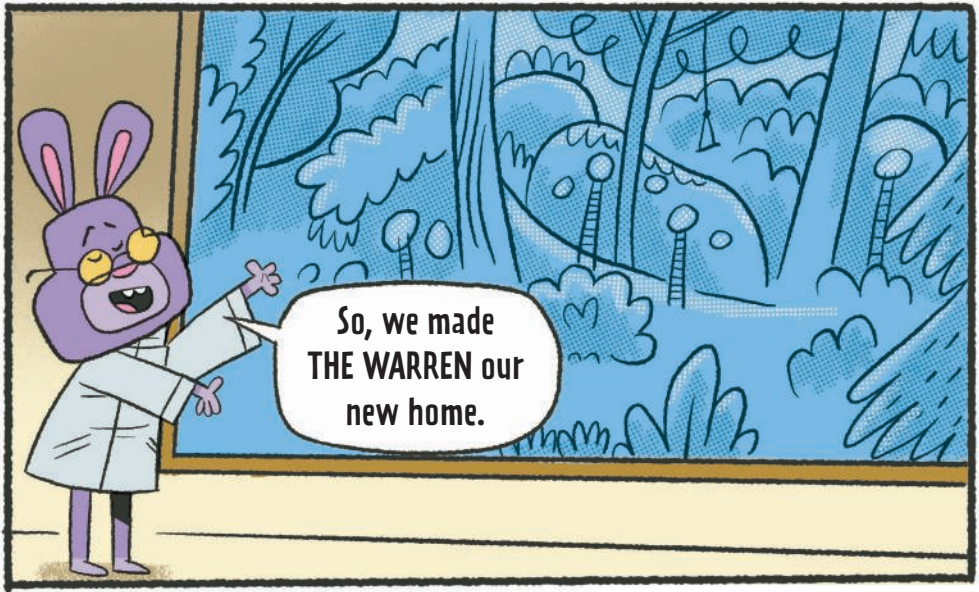

Pay attention, Sonny!
The Professor is explaining how
we got our powers.

As far as we can tell, a meteor
made its way through the galaxy
at incredible speed, heading straight towards our planet.

The meteor also released a—well ... we think ... it could be ... a still-unknown-chemical? Or ... radiation? Radio wave? Magic?

Yeah ... no, we're still not exactly sure, but we're working on it!

Whatever it is, it had an effect on some of the critters in these woods, and THE WARREN is THE PLACE for ALL super creatures to practise their new skills in complete safety!

Like our friends:
Millicent the Magnificent and her x-ray vision ...

Levitating
Levon ...

Erica the Electric Glider ...

Stretchy
Sally ...

And of course . . .

SUPERSIZED SQUIRREL AND BLAZE BUNNY!

RING!

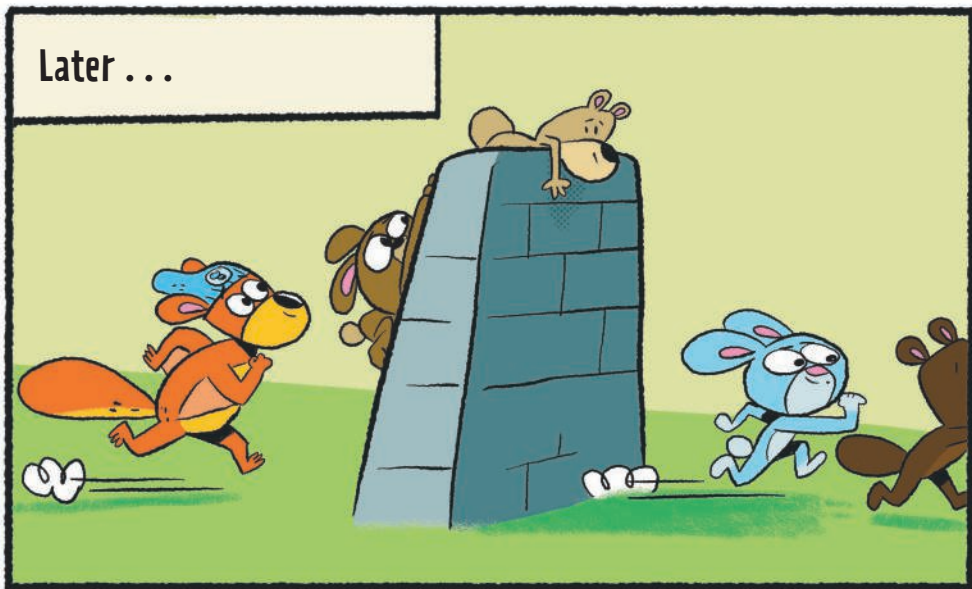

Well, there's the bell. Next lesson will concern agriculture and the preservation of seeds . . .

but yes . . . class dismissed!

Later ...

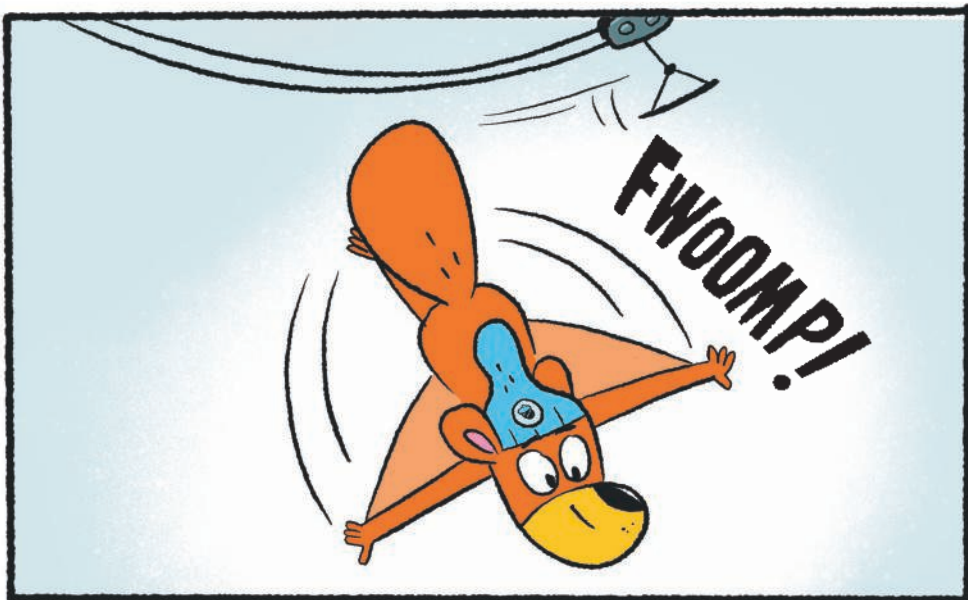

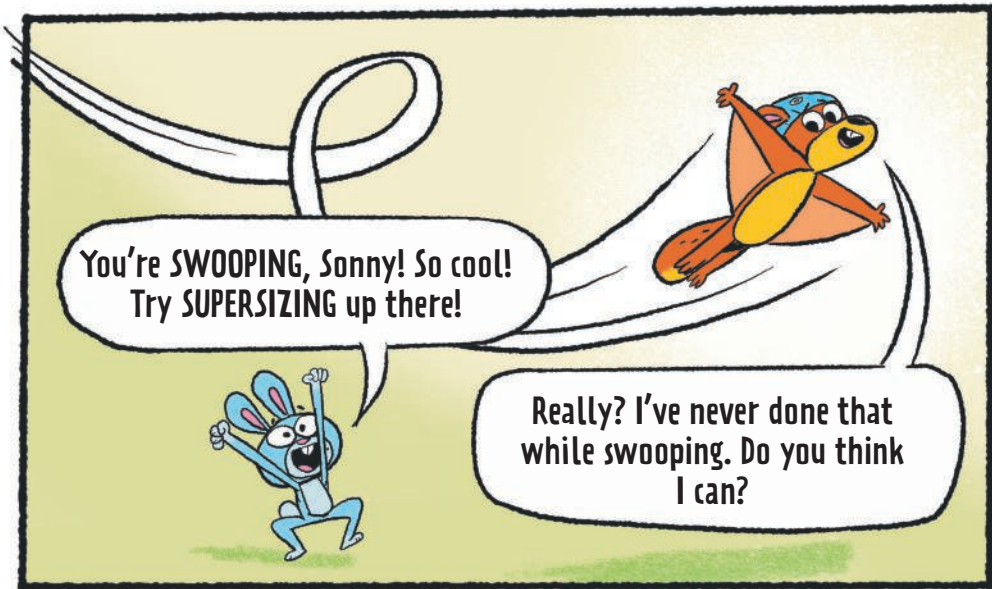

Woah, Blaze! You were not kidding, this is sooo fun!

I could play all day!

You're SWOOPING, Sonny! So cool!
Try SUPERSIZING up there!

Really? I've never done that while swooping. Do you think I can?

I know you can! You look so cool up there. GO BIG, BUDDY!

All right ...
let's see ...

BWOOP!
BWOOP!

Sonny,
The Professor
is calling us!

CHAPTER 2: ONE FAIL SWOOP

Sonny! Blaze!
Thank goodness
you're there!

What's up, Prof?

Our radar picked up a disturbance near the crater!
Our sensors are not able to decipher WHAT sort of disturbance, but . . .

Is it the F.A.R.T.?
Are they up to something again?
