

Princess Minna had everything planned out. The eleven sisters would eat sponge cake, kiss babies and admire the town's bunting. Meanwhile, Princess Minna was going to show Princess Sky-Blue some of her favourite things to do in the kingdom.

They were going to fly on the back of Lorenzo the dragon, go for a walk in the Enchanted Forest and have a picnic.

Yes, today was going to be brilliant.

As soon as they were ready, the King, the Queen and Princess Minna hurried out of the castle. Raymond couldn't come because he was going on a day trip to the water park.

“Lorenzo!” called Princess Minna. Lorenzo the dragon flew down and landed on the front lawn.
