DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. If you could learn any trick, what would it be?
2. What's the best trick you ever saw someone do?
3. What's your favourite joke and why is it funny?
4. What's something that you learned to do? How did it feel when you learned it?
5. If you could pretend to be any kind of person, what kind of person would you be? How could you be more like that person?
6. Have you ever seen a juggler or a magician? Where? What did they do?
7. If magic was real, what would you use it for? And could you do that without magic?
8. What is something you can do now but couldn't always do? How would you teach someone how to do it?
9. What do you do when your friend is sad? Is that what you'd like them to do when you're sad?
10. What makes you feel brave?

MAT RICARDO'S TOP MAGIC TRICKS

Juggling – because that's the first thing I got good at – and now NO FRUIT IS SAFE AROUND ME.

Pulling the tablecloth – it's what I'm known for, and it works on any table every time, so you should just give it a go (DO NOT DO THIS, THIS IS A JOKE).

Making a small object appear from a handkerchief – you can tell a lot about a person by what small object they choose! What will yours be?

Getting my thumb stuck in my buttonhole. I do this almost every day! It always makes me laugh and reminds me of one of my favourite performers.

Picking locks. I still cannot believe that they let me teach you how to pick locks in this book, but they really did! I think every young person should learn to pick locks, because in later life that skill will open a lot of doors. Haha. Sorry.
