DUCK

DELIVERS...CAKE!

TOM TINN-DISBURY

Duck loved his job at Feather Force delivery service. Getting important parcels where they needed to be was exciting! It was fun! And it was ALWAYS an adventure.

Duck set off each morning feeling like he could overcome any delivery challenge, even if things didn't go exactly to plan . . .

Like the time he was delivering a parcel to the football stadium and accidentally scored the winning goal.

Or the time
he mistakenly posted himself.

And then there was the time when a simple parcel drop-off to the theatre got him a big round of rather unexpected applause.

WOO!

One morning, Ostrich Bosstrich called Duck to Feather Force HQ extra early to give him his next assignment.

“Duck,” said Ostrich Bosstrich, “I need you to pick up a VERY delicious package from Crustaceans Café for a VERY important animal’s VERY important party. Then get it to the observatory by sunset. CAN DUCK DELIVER?”

“You bet I can,” quacked Duck. “Piece of cake!”
